

201—46.1(913) Compact agreement. The interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers is a legally binding agreement under which all 50 states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands serve as each other's agents in the supervision of certain parolees and probationers. The compact provides a simple legal method whereby parolees and probationers may move to better rehabilitative environments outside the state without losing the advantages of supervision or escaping from the jurisdiction of the state in which such person was sentenced.
